

Mini Drama Queens & Kings

The DAI Library offers a drama group for children ages 5 to 7. Working with our instructor, Janet Grau (Raum der Künste Heidelberg), we learn what "drama" really means. We play, we pretend, we sing and dance and draw. We look forward to presenting our dramatic ideas on stage! Participants should be native English speakers or children with a reasonable level of English.

This program has a limited number of participants. Please register your child ahead of time (one trial session possible).

Please note: This program is designed as a continuous experience running from September through July. Although payment is processed quarterly for administrative purposes, we highly recommend participating for the full duration.

Dates: weekly from September 25 onwards (12 meetings until Christmas)

*Every Thursday, 4:30–5:30 p.m.
(excluding school and public holidays)*

Language: English

Course fee (per quarter): 175 € (10 % discount for DAI members)

Please collect the current quarter's registration form at the library desk and submit it in person or via e-mail by October 02. Payment is then made by authorized direct debit.
